DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Though originally similar to 18 W. Hamilton Street, this house has been extensively altered above the first floor level. The bricks are painted. All windows, except for the one-over-one in the dormer, are two^ double hung with wood blinds.
-OVER-two

The second and third floors have three tall windows which repeat the three bays of the 1st floor. The long stone lintel of the original central bay is still visible on both 2nd and third floors. There is a wide peaked dormer in the attic.

The greater height of the parlor floor is indicated by its taller windows, which together with their lower wood panels and tall blinds seem to reach from floor to ceiling.
